Temporary Signs or Banners

The Sign Ordinance was developed to balance the needs of businesses to advertise with the community's desire for an attractive, less cluttered appearance in its commercial areas. In order to maintain a high-quality, attractive business community, the City of Oakland Park requires that all temporary signs meet certain standards regarding size, location, mounting, quality materials, etc. The Municipal Code allows for temporary signs that advertise a special event such as a sale, exhibition, or other promotional event.

- Temporary signs require a sign permit to be obtained from the Building Department.
- Each business is allowed to display banner, or sign for no more than 30 days in a 12 month period. These days may be consecutive or on intermittent dates, however only issued 4 times per 12 month period. Please refer to the Municipal Code for specific regulations.
- New Business- at the location of a new establishment or new residential development that has been granted a Certificate of Use or Certificate of Occupancy within 90 days one sign up to 30 days, with permit.
- Temporary signs are only allowed to be displayed on the same property as the business or special event that is being advertised.
- Temporary signs cannot be located within road rights-of-way or easements and cannot be mounted to trees or other landscaping or utility poles, traffic signs or other similar structures
- Temporary signs need to be constructed of high-quality materials and need to be maintained so that the sign does not deteriorate in wind and bad weather conditions.
- Temporary signs may only be on display when the business/event is open to the public. They may not be left up overnight.

Prohibited Signs:

- Buntings or pennants
- Inflatables
- Windblown signs
- Portable signs (temporary only allowed with permit)
- Snipe signs
- Changeable copy signs
